

Principal's Message

Welcome back to school! I hope you were able to enjoy your summer and find time to relax and unwind.

As we approach the start of the school year, we are planning some fun activities to welcome our students and get to know each other. This will be so important as we have students new to the district joining us as well as students who were redistricted. We also will be welcoming back our virtual students. Regardless if you are new to Carmel Middle or have been here a year or two, we are so excited to have ALL students back into the building together.

As a part of our welcome back activities, each student will receive a new Carmel Middle School t-shirt. A HUGE thank you to our PTO who stepped up to purchase these shirts for our students. Students will receive their shirts on the first day of school and will be expected to wear them the second day as a part of our back to school activities. We love our PTO! Please be sure to donate to this supportive group as they do so much to assist our students and staff members.

Communication is a priority and we will be sending biweekly emails to you with updated information and important reminders. Please be sure to look for these emails as well as our newsletters. Also, if you haven't done so, please be sure to become an observer of your student's Canvas pages where you will also find updated information from your student's teachers as well as be able to see assignments. Schedules and grades can be found in PowerSchool.

WELCOME

TO OUR NEW STAFF!

Kristin Anderson

I will be teaching journalism courses this year, including digital media, newspaper, and yearbook. This is my second year at Carmel Middle School. Last year, I taught 6th grade social studies. I graduated from Butler University with a bachelor's and master's degrees in education. In my free time, I love to read many different genres, but I especially like historical fiction. I also like to do genealogical research, which is an interest I share with my family in northern Indiana.

Erin Benning

I am excited to be teaching 7th Grade ELA and Honors ELA for the first semester this year. I have worked as an IA in Carmel Clay Schools for the last three years, and I previously taught Middle and High School Social Studies in Louisiana and Texas. I have two kids, a 7th grader at CAM and a sophomore at CHS.

Emily Ehrgott

This is my 8th year teaching art and my 2nd year teaching art at Carmel Middle School. I was the perm sub at CAM for 2 years before that and previously taught elementary art for 6 years. I took off some time to raise my kids and I spent 3 years as the Executive Director at the Carmel Clay Historical Society. I enjoy being pool-side, shopping, interior design, painting and creating and especially going to my kids' baseball games. I have 3 kids that attend Carmel schools, a 6th grader at Carmel Middle and a freshman and junior at Carmel High School. I am looking forward to creating art with the students at Carmel Middle School this year.

I hope to instill a positive lifelong fitness mindset in my students! I look forward to working with my students this semester and to have a lot of fun in the classroom and the gymnasium!

Kristen Milewski

I lived in Southern California most of my life and moved to Carmel in 2018. I graduated from San Diego State University with a degree in Liberal Studies (their name for Education) and received my master's degree from CSU Fullerton in Educational Leadership. I have 3 daughters and have been married for 7 years. My twins will be starting Kindergarten at Towne Meadow this year and my preschooler will start in the Edu-Care here at CMS. I enjoy cooking, watching movies, and spending time with family and friends. I have been teaching Special Education for 14 years. This year, I will be teaching 6th grade Resource. I am looking forward to a great year and learning all about Carmel Middle School!

Anna McConnell

My name is Anna McConnell and I'm thrilled to be joining the Carmel Middle School team this year as a 6th Grade Science teacher. I graduated from Indiana University with a degree in Elementary Education in 2011. For the first five years of my teaching career, I taught early childhood classes in Chicago, Bangor, Maine, and Indianapolis. For the last five years I was a fourth-grade teacher at West Lafayette Intermediate School. My husband and I recently relocated to the Carmel area with our two young children, and I'm excited for the opportunity to work in this community. I'm eager to get this school year started at Carmel Middle!

SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICER

Well Cougars, I am so happy to welcome you all back! I am looking forward to more of a normal year. With safety always being in the forefront of my mind, last year's unique challenges forced us to look at safety differently. I'm happy to say that this different perspective helped us to think of ways to help keep our beloved Carmel Middle School even safer. With that being said, I want all of us to maintain that mindset of looking at our safety from different perspectives, and sharing when we don't think something is safe, or could be safer. Remember, we are all Cougars now, and in this together.

With love,
Officer Broadnax

STUDENT SERVICES

Navigating through middle school- it can be a rocky road!— As our middle school parents know, academics aren't the only challenge of middle school. There are also numerous social challenges that also often add stress to your child's day. While some of the middle school "drama" may seem silly, it is not silly to your child. At this age, fitting in becomes a very big deal. And with so many changing emotions, small things really can seem like "the end of the world". That's why your child needs your support now more than ever. As we transition to a full school day schedule and in-class learning, supporting your student through this transition is a crucial part of the healthy development of your middle school child.

Staying Connected— one of the best things you can do for your child is to keep your communication open. Let your child know you're there for him or her no matter what. When he or she opens up, listen without criticizing or judging. When possible, help your child find ways to work out the problems he or she is facing. For example, if your child doesn't fit in with one group, suggest ways he or she could make other friends, such as joining a school club or sport.

Decisions, Decisions— Teaching your child to make good choices is another way to help him or her deal with negative peer pressure. Start by instilling good values, which are the basis for good decision-making skills. Talk about characteristics you value, such as respect for differences, honesty, and helping others. Also, teach your child to stop and think before he or she acts. Explain how to think through possible options and the pros and cons of each before making a choice. Sometimes, you can use situations in a movie, a TV show, or book as a way to start a conversation about choices.

Remember, the Carmel Middle School Student Services Department is always available to you and your child to help through this often turbulent time. If you are worried about something regarding your child's experience here at Carmel, please do not hesitate to give us a call or email us. We are happy to offer help or a friendly ear.
